

Penn's Twenty-Sixth Annual Relay Carnival Continues Today : Some of Yesterday's Winners

Ledger Photo Service.
J. M. WATT, of Cornell, didn't do much during the day except to break the world's record in the 440-yard hurdles. His time was 54.1-5 seconds. In trial heat his time was 56 seconds.

Ledger Photo Service.
BARTELS, of Penn., who won the 200-meter run in the pentathlon contest. His time was 22.4-5 seconds.

Ledger Photo Service.
THE WINNER of the weight throwing was C. G. Dandrow, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Ledger Photo Service.
HITTING THE STRING, a winner in the great international three-mile race. He is Nightingale, of the New Hampshire State College.

Ledger Photo Service.
WON THE PENTATHLON without a first place. This marvelous feat was accomplished by "Ed" Bradley, of the University of Kansas. In each entry he made the winner go hard to win.

Ledger Photo Service.
EATING WITH A SHIPMATE as he is chained to his bicycle in a local hotel. New York to Los Angeles and return on a wager is the job that is before the bicycle rider, Tony Pizzo.

Central News Photo.
WILBUR J. CARR, for several years director of the consular service, has been made assistant to the secretary of state.

Ledger Photo Service.
MISS ELIZABETH WIRTNER (left) and Miss May Taintor, who will represent "hootblacks" in the Hippodrome show, which will be held today at the Germantown Y. W. C. A.

Central News Photo.
GIVEN A TWELVE-YARD LEAD by his running partners, Davis, Maxim and Landers, Eby won for Penn., with Lafayette second, in the sprint medley. Eby is seen in the foreground, just about to take the baton from Landers.

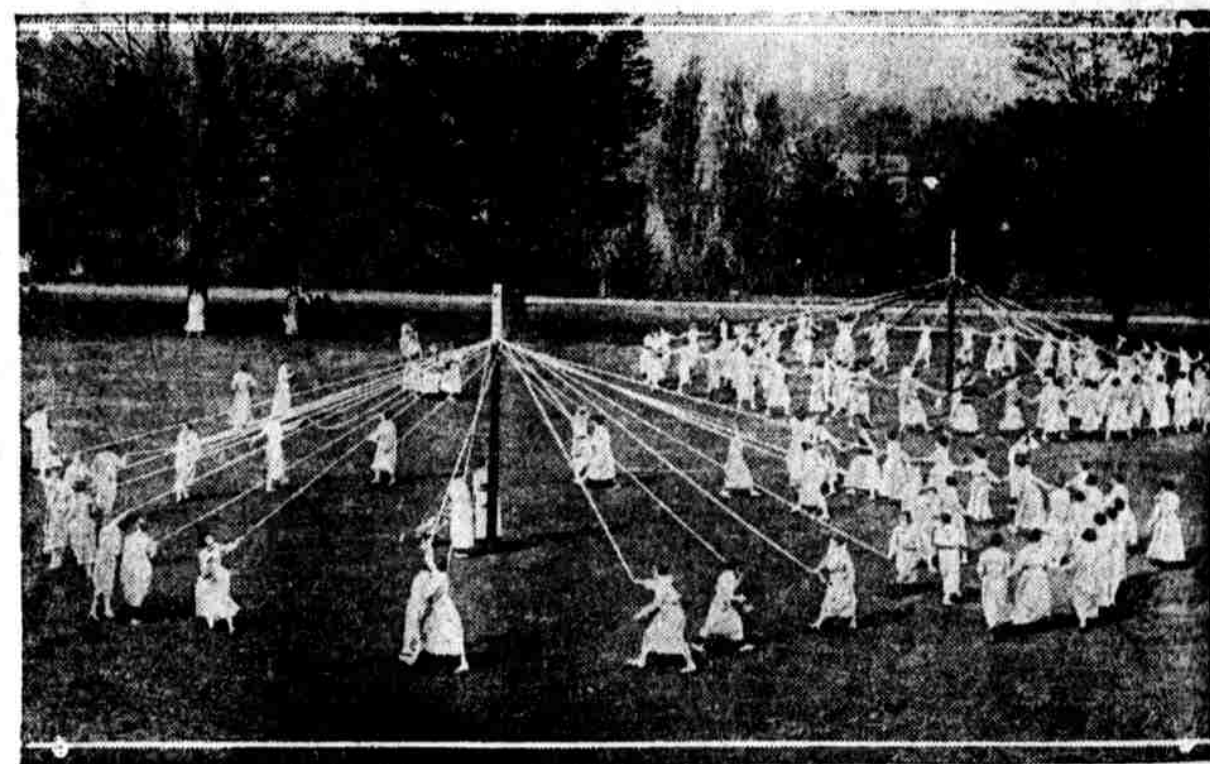

Harris & Ewing.
LABOR'S long-term member of the railroad labor board is Albert Phillips, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

Ledger Photo Service.
WEST PHILADELPHIA CHILDREN engaged in a speedy game of dodge ball at the Sherwood Recreation Center. The ball is on the move, but it missed the girl who was "it."

Central News Photo.
WEARING A GLASS EYE and a happy smile, William Eugene Johnson, better known as "Pussfoot" Johnson, has returned to his home at Westerville, Ohio.

Ledger Photo Service.
ALTHOUGH HELD on the last day of April, the May-Day festival of Bryn Mawr College was a most interesting event. Some of the events took place before breakfast. The photograph shows the senior classwomen as they tramped merrily about the hay poles.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

LOOPING the toe and heel of a full-fashioned silk stocking on a 22-point machine in the mill of Thomas E. Brown & Sons, Second and Westmoreland streets. Miss Pearl Schramm, the operator, is able to complete about forty dozen a day.

International.
MRS. NANCY PERKINS FIELD, widow of Henry Field, of Chicago, who is reported to be engaged to Arthur Lambert Tree, of England.

Ledger Photo Service.
MISS MARGARET MILLICENT CAREY, president of the senior class of Bryn Mawr, presenting the gorgeous May basket to Miss Helen Taft, acting president of the college.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS THERESA KELLER, 256 West Thayer St., Phila. Photographs for this feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.